Use the official conference hashtag across social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) to share your impressions of the conference, the papers, the events, and Cyprus in general.

Conference Reports

As we plan to use the conference website as a blog, we invite interested delegates and attendees to send us conference reports for inclusion in our blog. [Please note that submissions are subject to approval by the organizing committee.]

For bloggers: if you intend to write a conference report for your own blog, feel free to share it with us via social media.
